

The West Virginia Rural Health Conference

is please to announce our

2017 Conference Chair

MARK DOAK

Mark Doak was President of Davis Health System from September 2001 through November 2015. Davis Health System includes an 80-bed sole community hospital, a 12-bed critical access hospital, 60 bed long-term care facility, home health agency, home respiratory therapy, durable medical equipment, outpatient pharmacies and physician clinics.

In 1983, Mr. Doak helped form Doak, Cuppett & Poling a CPA firm specializing in healthcare entities. The firm had the opportunity to work with rural healthcare facilities throughout West Virginia and the nation.

He has served as past chair of the West Virginia Hospital Association, past chair of the American Hospital Association's Section for Small/Rural Hospitals, as well as a member of the AHA's Coalition to Protect America's Healthcare. He was recognized in 2010 for Who's Who in West Virginia Business, and is past chair the WV Chapter of the Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA).

Mr. Doak is currently active member on several boards – Elkins/Randolph Chamber of Commerce, Randolph County Development Authority, Elkins Main Street, Woodlands Community Lenders and Tucker Community Foundation.

Mr. Doak graduated from West Virginia University with a degree in business and a major in accounting. He became a certified public accountant in 1975. He and his wife, Marsha, have three sons – an entrepreneur, a petroleum engineer and a college gymnastics coach – and two granddaughters.
