Silent Auction Donations

WVRHA warmly invites sponsors and exhibitors to contribute items to our silent auction, a highlight of the conference that brings added energy and engagement for attendees.

Donating an item is a meaningful way to showcase your organization, connect with participants, and support WVRHA's mission to advance rural health across West Virginia.

We welcome a variety of items, including gift baskets, experiences, services, or branded merchandise. Your contribution helps create a memorable experience for attendees while directly supporting ongoing rural health initiatives.

Thank you for your generosity and for helping to make this event a success.

Thank you for supporting Rural Health and making this event a success!
